

RecoverPro™: RECEIVE MORE OF THE COMMISSIONS YOU'RE OWED

A complementary service for customers already consolidating commissions through Sure Pay, our robust commission recovery offering is the end-to-end solution for your bookings. We manage every aspect of capturing, reconciling, tracking and accounting for commissions owed from any hotel with which your agency does business, all over the world. Onyx collects booking data through a seamless process and handles all data matching, collection, follow up, invoicing and reporting needs. Many of the world's largest travel bookers are among the more than 10,000 travel agents that use our recovery services.

Benefits

Increased commissions

Customers see an average 20%+ increase in commissions using Onyx recovery services.

Reduced administrative overhead

Outsourcing commissions processing to Onyx greatly reduces the internal resources required to administer commissions receivables.

Lower bank fees

With one electronic payment per week in the currency of your choice, greatly reduce bank charges and currency-conversion fees.

Reporting and business insights

Receive full reporting on all commissions paid in one electronic file, including all VAT reports. This provides a complete picture of your hotel business, highlighting your most productive hotel relationships.

Agency-friendly invoicing

Our InvoicePro feature provides a complete inventory of documented commissionable transactions for value added tax to ensure tax compliance for both travel agencies and hotels.

Hotel follow up

Unpaid bookings will be pursued up to a full year, ensuring the greatest likelihood of successful commissions recovery.
